- 13.01 Decisions of an academic nature such as, but not limited to, admission, re-evaluation of a course grade and discipline for academic misconduct are not subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure.
- 13.02 The parties agree that it is preferable to resolve problems through discussions among those persons directly concerned before submitting a grievance.

To this effect, a Member is encouraged to discuss any difference with her/his immediate supervisor as soon as possible and no later than ten (10) days after the Member becomes aware of the incident causing the dispute.

- 13.03 Any dispute between a Member and the Employer not resolved as set out above, or any dispute arising between the Employer and the Union, may be the subject of a grievance insofar as such disputes result from the interpretation, the application or the violation of the Agreement. Grievances by a Member must have the approval and support of the Union.

13.04 A grievance shall be submitted in writing and shall specify:

- a) the provision or the provisions of the Agreement that have been allegedly misinterpreted, misapplied or violated;
- b) a description of the incident giving rise to the grievance;
- c) the remedy sought.

13.05 A grievance initiated by a Member shall be treated in the following manner:

A grievance shall be submitted no later than twenty (20) days after the Member becomes aware of the incident giving rise to the grievance and, in any event no later than forty (40) days from that incident.

Stage 1:

A grievance shall be submitted to the Department Chair and discussed at a meeting to be held within twenty (20) days of its submission. The Department Chair, the immediate supervisor, the aggrieved Member and a Union representative shall attend such a meeting.

The Department Chair shall reply in writing within twenty (20) days following the meeting.

Stage 2:

Failing a satisfactory resolution of the grievance at Stage 1 or in the absence of a reply by the Department Chair the Union may submit the grievance in writing to the Dean within ten (10) days of the Department Chair's reply or her/his failure to reply within the time limit provided in Stage 1.

The Dean or her/his representative may convene a meeting to discuss the grievance within twenty (20) days of its submission at Stage 2. The Dean or her/his representative, the Department Chair and the aggrieved Member, the Union representative and a Union staff representative shall attend such a meeting.

The Dean or her/his representative may request the presence of the immediate supervisor as well as a representative of the Employee and Labour Relations' Unit.

The Dean or her/his representative shall reply in writing within twenty (20) days following the meeting or, if no meeting is held, within twenty (20) days following the submission of the grievance at Stage 2.

13.06 A grievance initiated by the Union shall be submitted to the Dean within twenty (20) days after the Union becomes aware of the incident giving rise to the grievance and, in any event, no later than forty (40) days from that incident.

A grievance initiated by the Employer shall be submitted to the Union Local President within twenty (20) days after the Employer becomes aware of the incident giving rise to the grievance and, in any event, no later than forty (40) days from that incident.

The Party against whom the grievance is lodged shall reply in writing to the other party within twenty (20) days following the latter of the submission of the grievance or, if the parties agree to meet to discuss the grievance, within twenty (20) days following the meeting.

13.07 Failing resolution of the grievance through the procedure set out in clauses 13.05 and 13.06, the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, may submit the grievance to arbitration within thirty (30) days of the reply or, in the case of the failure to reply, within thirty (30) days from the date on which the reply was due from the Dean or from the Union, as the case may be.

13.08 Upon referral to arbitration, the Employer and the Union shall make every effort to agree on the selection of the arbitrator within ten (10) days.

If the parties cannot agree on an Arbitrator within thirty (30) days, either party may request the Minister of Labour to appoint an Arbitrator.

13.09 Each party shall bear the expenses of its representatives, participants, and witnesses and of the preparation and presentation of its own case. The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator, the hearing room and any other expenses incidental to the Arbitration hearing shall be borne equally by the parties. The parties agree to use Employer facilities at no cost wherever possible.

13.10 The Arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, modify, change, alter or ignore in any way the provisions of this Agreement.

In matters of discipline the arbitrator may confirm, amend, or set aside the decision of the Employer and may substitute a decision which she/he deems fair and reasonable in the circumstances. However, where the Collective Agreement provides a specific penalty for an offence, the arbitrator shall only confirm or set aside the Employer's decision, or amend it as the case may be, to make it conform to the penalty provided for in the Collective Agreement.

13.11 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties.

13.12 All time limits set forth in the present Article are mandatory but may be extended by written agreement between the parties. The parties agree that such agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 14 - DISCIPLINE

14.01 There are three (3) disciplinary measures which may be imposed on a Member depending on the gravity and frequency of the offense:

- a) Verbal warning;
- b) Written warning;
- c) Dismissal.

14.02 No disciplinary measures shall be imposed without just and sufficient cause, of which the burden of proof rests with the Employer.

14.03 Disciplinary measures may be the subject of a grievance and shall then be referred to the grievance and arbitration procedure described in Article 13.

14.04 When a disciplinary measure is taken, the Member may, if she or he so wishes be accompanied by a Union representative. The Member shall be so advised at least two (2) days in advance. The Member shall receive a copy of a written disciplinary measure, with a copy to the Union.

14.05 A written notice of a disciplinary measure shall be removed from a Member's Employment file if, in the following twelve (12) months worked, no other disciplinary measure is taken against the Member.

When a student does not apply within this deadline, late applications may be considered.

15.04 Teaching Assistant contracts are normally awarded for one (1) academic term or less. Subsequent contracts may be awarded at the discretion of Department Chair where a Teaching Assistant position is available, based on the student's academic performance and on her/his performance in prior Teaching Assistant positions.

15.05 Marking duties may be the object of separate marker contracts.

15.06 The Employer shall determine the hours of work allocated to a contract taking into account preparation time, contact hours in the lab, classroom or office, and marking time.

15.07 The University shall inform a Member of the duties to be performed and the hours of work prior to signing a contract. All contracts shall be signed before the work begins.
